

ACAS Thirty Years On

Edited By William Martin

Table of Contents

- 1 - 6 Introduction: ACAS 30 years on — William Martin
- 7 A Brief Note on the Beginnings of ACAS — Immanuel Wallerstein
- 8 - 16 Origins of the Association of Concerned Africa Scholars (ACAS) as a pro-Africa voice among American Scholars — David Wiley
- 17 ACAS Puts Health on its Agenda — Meredith Turshen
- Concerned Africa Scholars: A Retrospective
- 18 - 19 Summary of the Founding Meeting of the Association of Concerned Africa Scholars, Houston Texas, November 3, 1977
- 20 - 21 ACAS Draft Statement of Principles (1977)
- 22 Southern Africa and Liberal Intervention — Immanuel Wallerstein (1977)
- 23 - 26 Why We Said 'No' to A.I.D — Sean Gervasi, Ann Seidman, Immanuel Wallerstein and David Wiley (1977)
- 27 - 28 Statement of Dr. Jean Sindab (1986)
- 29 Reflection on Ten Years or So — Immanuel Wallerstein (1988)
- 30 - 32 On Scholar Activism — John Saul (1988)
- 33 Activist Scholarship — James Mittelman (1988)
- 34 - 39 A Greater Voice for Africa in the United States: An Analysis and Proposed Agenda for Africanist Scholars, New Directions for the 1990s — David Wiley (1993)
- 41 - 42 The Africanist Positions on Military Funding and Service in the National Interest in African Research, Service and Studies — David Wiley